*Set a guard over our priests, especially those who,
in many parts of the world,
live in mortal danger.
Be their protection day and night, O Lord.
Keep evildoers far from them.*

Blessed Elías, Martyred in Guanajuato

In 1926, when government persecutions of the Church began, P Elías moved to a cave near his church so he could minister to his people clandestinely. In the fourteen months during which that situation lasted, his people never lacked the Sacraments.

In March 1928, this came to an end when P Elías was arrested for the crime of being a priest. He was executed by firing squad in the town of Cortazar, a little more than an hour from San Miguel.

Pope John Paul II beatified him in July 1997. The Augustinian Family celebrates his feast on 11 October.

New Carlo Acutis Shrine in Brick, NJ

First-class Relic of Blessed Carlo placed in New Jersey church by his mother

“This is a time when we need saints because the darkness is all around us, and young people have so many dangers... Carlo is a sign of hope... Our children can still be holy.”

Antonia Acutis (Carlos' mother)

His feast day is celebrated October 12.

PRAY that the Holy Spirit will guide the deliberations of all of the participants in the Synod on Synodality that is taking place in Rome this month.

“Nothing is more important for the freedom of souls and the good of mankind than properly to distinguish between [the spiritual and the temporal] powers: nothing, in the language of the day, has so great a cultural value.”

Jacques Maritain, The Things That Are Not Caesar's
