Please send prayer requests to Mary Kavanagh

 Let us pray for peace and for the innocent victims of the wars in Ukraine and the middle East.

Set a guard over our priests, especially those who, in many parts of the world, live in mortal danger. Be their protection day and night, O Lord. Keep evildoers far from them. Bless them everywhere and always. Amen.

Christmas Masses

Christmas Day, 25th: Mass in English at 10:30am
 Christmas Eve, 24th: 8pm "Rocking of the Baby" (Spanish)
 Christmas Day: 8am, 12noon, 5pm (Spanish)

This year we celebrate two holy days back to back:

the Fourth Sunday of Advent on the 24th and Christmas Day on the 25th.

Attending one of these Masses does not count for both, but we have several options for attending both:

For Sunday: Saturday night, the 23rd, at 6pm or any daytime Mass on the 24th (8am, 10:30, noon)

For Christmas: Christmas Eve, Sunday night, the 24th, at 8pm or any daytime Mass on Christmas Day (8am, 10:30, noon, 6pm)

Why is there a figure of the devil in some Mexican Nacimientos?

Padre José de Jesus Aguilar of the Primate Archdiocese of Mexico explained that the figure of the devil in the nacimiento is not decorative but meant to lead us to self-examination: am I permitting the devil to destroy my ideals, my happy moments, my closeness to others, my solidarity with those in need?
