Pope Leo XIV, the first American Pope

On May 8, Cardinal Robert Francis Prevost was elected the 267th pope and the first from the United States. He chose the name Leo XIV.

He was born in Chicago on Sept. 14, 1955, one of three children. His father was of French and Italian descent and his mother Spanish.

In 1977, he joined the Augustinian order; he made his solemn vows in 1981 and was ordained to the priesthood in 1982.

Our new Holy Father earned a licentiate and a doctorate in canon law from the Pontifical College of St. Thomas Aquinas in Rome [the Angelicum] and taught canon law in seminaries in Peru. He speaks English, Spanish, Italian, French, and Portuguese.

After serving many years as a missionary in Peru, he was named bishop of Chiclayo, Peru in 2014. His episcopal motto is "In illo uno unum"—"In the one Christ we are one."

A Prayer for our new Pope

Lord, source of eternal life and truth, give to your shepherd a spirit of courage and right judgment, a spirit of knowledge and love. By governing with fidelity those entrusted to his care, may he, as successor to the Apostle Peter and Vicar of Christ, build your Church into a sacrament of unity, love and peace for all the world. Amen.
