Dogs of the Lord

When St. Dominic Guzman's mother was pregnant with him, she dreamt of a dog with a torch in its mouth, running around the world and setting everything on fire. A monk told her that the child in her womb would be a great preacher who would set the world on fire with his words. And, in fact, that's what happened. St Dominic Guzman is said to have converted 100,000 people through his preaching and, in addition, he founded the Order of Preachers—the Dominicans—in 1216. "Dominican" is a play on the Latin phrase Domini canes—dogs of the Lord." CNA

Brazil consecrated to St Michael

August 12, in the midst of the country's political unrest and uncertainty, Brazil, the country with the most Catholics in the world, was consecrated to St Michael the Archangel by the full session of the Chamber of Deputies. The pilgrim image of St Michael from Italy (image left) was also crowned as the spiritual commander of the Brazilian nation. The Chamber also officially instituted September 29, the feast day of St Michael, as a national holiday. ACI Prensa

*Set a guard over our priests, O Lord.
Watch over them day and night.
Keep evildoers far from them.
Protect them everywhere and always. Amen.*

Knights on Bikes—biker gangs or missionaries?

These Knights of Columbus ride bikes, not horses. They ride for the love of riding and for the companionship of other like-minded knights, but the group's focus is on serving the Church through works of charity and evangelization of their Catholic communities and beyond.
