*Set a guard over our priests, O Lord.
Watch over them day and night.
Keep evildoers far from them.
Protect them everywhere and always. Amen.*

New Age practices are not harmless fun

It's "just for fun" claim most of the one in three people who turn to astrology and other New Age practices. But the Catechism of the Catholic Church explicitly warns against all forms of divination: tarot cards, fortune telling, astrology, Ouija boards, etc. because they counter the respect we owe to God alone. The temptation to consult psychics who promise to connect us to a loved one "on the other side" can be great, but that can possibly open us up to malevolent forces. Consulting psychics

Searching for peace and stability in her life, a Mexican woman was first drawn into the world of the occult by Feng Shui. After ten years of futile searching, she realized that her involvement with the occult had "opened the door to satan," she returned to the Church to find her peace.

Blessed Isadore

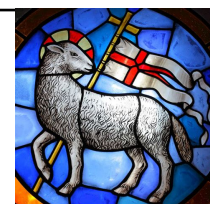

One of "the least brothers" of Jesus, Isadore Bakanjawa born in northeast Zaire (then, Belgian Congo) sometime between 1885 and 1890. He freely shared his faith in his native village, but moved to another one to find work. There those in control hated Christians. When he was ordered to remove his scapular, he refused and for his disobedience was flogged until the bones in his back were visible. He was rescued, but too late to save him an agonizing death. He was beatified by Pope John Paul II in 1994.

Understanding the book of Revelation-free online course

Course description: "The Book of Revelation is the Bible's most mysterious and challenging text. Filled with prophetic signs and symbols unknown to most modern Christians, it often seems like an enigmatic puzzle. Join us as we learn to read the symbols, signs, and literary techniques of this book the way the early Christians understood them and, thereby, rediscover the beautiful and consoling message of salvation intended to be heard by its original author, two millennia ago, but still so relevant today!"
