Watch over them day and night.

Protect them everywhere and always. Amen.*

Thanksgiving potluck?

It's easy: you provide the turkey and beverages; the rest is potluck. And you will get lots of help from everyone.

Miracle at Nacogdoches

A year after Franciscan Father Antonio Margil and a group of missionaries founded a mission in Nacogdoches, a small town in East Texas, a drought hit the region, forcing many to leave,

Father Margil, after spending a night in prayer for his people, received a vision that showed him a spot near a creek. The next morning, he led a group to the place and, like Moses, struck his staff against a rock. Immediately water flowed from two spots, giving the place its name of "The Eyes of Margil." Today the spring is still there and is a pilgrimage destination.

When the unborn child – the "stranger in the womb" – is declared to be beyond the protection of society, not only are America's deepest traditions radically undermined and endangered, but a moral blight is brought upon society...The right to life is the first of all rights. It is the foundation of democratic liberties and the keystone of the edifice of civil society. Both as Americans and as followers of Christ, American Catholics must be committed to the defense of life in all its stages and in every condition. Saint John Paul II
