*Set a guard over our priests, O Lord.
 Watch over them day and night.
 Keep evildoers far from them.
 Protect them everywhere and always. Amen.*

Ordinary Time

Christmas Time and Easter Time celebrate the Incarnation, Death, Resurrection, and Ascension of Jesus, and the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. The Sundays and weeks of Ordinary Time, on the other hand, take us through the life of Christ. The green liturgical color reminds us that this is the time of conversion and spiritual growth

Ordinary Time is a time in which the mystery of Christ is called to penetrate ever more deeply into history until all finally acknowledge Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. USCCB

Cardinal Newman and the laity

"I want a laity, not arrogant, not rash in speech, not disputatious, but men who know their religion, who enter into it, who know just where they stand, who know what they hold and what they do not, who know their creed so well that they can give an account of it, who know so much of history that they can defend it." Quoted in Crisis Magazine

A way to know our religion

Have you ever wished you could explain the Catholic understanding of the book of Revelation or defend some of the doctrines of the Church to others? Or to yourself? The Institute of Catholic Culture offers a multitude of talks and courses from Sacred Scripture and Catechesis to Literature and Philosophy taught by some "big names" in the Catholic world such as Anthony Esolen, Fr Paul Scalia, and Msgr Charles Pope. Browse their offerings; all the content is free once you register.

"We do not really want a religion that is right where we are right. What we want is a religion that is right where we are wrong. We do not want...a church that will move with the world. We want a church that will move the world."
 GK Chesterton
