Nigeria: More bloodshed

The Catholic Secretariat of Nigeria (CSN), in their one-page statement titled "The Cry of the Innocent: Stop This Slaughterhouse in Nigeria!," recounted the ongoing violence that continues with impunity in their county.

Between late January and early February, over 160 innocent civilians were slaughtered in one coordinated attack. In addition, throughout Nigeria there have been repeated killings and abductions and the wiping out of entire farming communities.

The Secretariat called upon the government to protect its people: "This is not 'instability' but a massacre allowed by silence and a betrayal of every Nigerian's right to live in peace." EWTN News
